Many Building and Other Improvements in Various Parts of the Town

Kidder & Cooper are contractors for the new fraternity house being built on the corner of Telegraph avenue and Durant avenue, for the Delta Kappa Upsilon. It is three stories and one of the most imposing structures in Berkeley. The first floor will contain reception room, lounging room, library, dining room, kitchen, serving room and pantry, besides the necessary closets and reception hall. The dining room will be 26x30 and provided with every modern convenience. There are to be seven sleeping rooms, three bath rooms, etc.

The third-floor will contain seven rooms also, and in the basement will be found a large hall for social purposes, servants' apartments and laundry. The house is to be lighted with electricity and gas. When completed it will be a model in colonial style. The front entrance will be on Telegraph avenue and is to be one of the most elegant in Berkeley. The large doors will be entered through four massive fluted columns with fancy caps. There are to be a number of large porches. Throughout the house is to be finished in natural woods. The architect is Edward B. Seeley of San Francisco.

The building, which is to cost $11,000, is owned by a stock company. Nathaniel Blaisdell of San Francisco is superintendent and expects to have it completed by the 1st of August. J. A. Marshall is doing the concrete work.

C. C. Post of San Francisco expects to move very soon into a new house being erected for him on Mason street near Grove. It contains four rooms and is 24x38. The cost is to be about $1600, and will be completed in one month. H. R. Abrahamson of Piedmont is the contractor.

Mason street is being graded between Ellis street and Shattuck avenue.

Dr. D. L. Steel of San Francisco is building a cottage on Harbor street near Woolsey. There are five rooms besides bath and closets. J. C. Rogers is the contractor.

F. G. Aldrich is building a six-room cottage on Woolsey corner of Harbor street. Mr. Aldrich is his own contractor and architect. He has also sunk a well 37 feet and secured good, pure water. Mr. Corbett was the well borer.

George Schmidt has moved a large barn from his home on Byron street to a lot on University avenue near San Pablo, where he has placed it in the rear of a building which was recently moved from East Berkeley. W. P. Grant is the contractor in charge of the work.

B. Muller is architect, owner and contractor for a cottage on Newberry street north of Ashby avenue. It is to contain five rooms besides bath, etc., and will cost about $1200 when completed and ready for occupancy. Mr. Muller tore down the old house which formerly occupied the site.

BASKET BALL PLAYERS TO LAEVE.

Miss Alma Emma Stockwell has been elected captain of the University of California basket-ball team, for the coming year. She has played on the University team for the past two years, and is regarded as one of the best players among all the students. She is very popular among the women students, a thing which will be of great help to her in getting out new material for the team next fall.

Four of the members of this year's team will not be eligible next season, as they have played four years. These are Miss Edith Brownsill, captain and forward; Miss Josephine Roller, left forward; Miss Edna Robinson, right forward; Miss Elizabeth Griswold, center.

The players who will still be in college will be Miss Sara Hanscom, right center; Miss Louise Linscott, left center; Miss May Haworth, center guard; Miss Lulu Rued, left guard, and Miss Alma Stockwell, captain and right guard.

Dr. Dresslar of the University of California addressed the San Mateo County Teachers' Institute at Redwood City on May 4th. Two very interesting addresses were given by Dr. Dresslar, one on the subject, "The Recitation," the other on "The Study of the Imagination."

REGENTS SHOW PATRIOTISM.

A FACULTY VOLUNTEER LOSES NO SALARY.

Professor Syle's Lecture on Rome and America Declared to Have Been Patriotic.

The Regents of the University of California paused in their arduous labors of discussing reports of committees Tuesday to give vent to their patriotism. The departure was brought about by Judge Wallace moving that Lieutenant A. P. Hayne, an assistant professor in the department of agriculture, be allowed half pay during his absence as a volunteer soldier. Regent Halldie enthusiastically amended the motion by making it full pay. Regent J. E. Budd added his voice by saying that if any student or professor in the university desired to enlist in their country's defense he should be given leave of absence and full pay.

At another time during the session the spark of patriotism was again fanned into flame. Regent Budd was in favor of raising the salary of Professor Syle of the department of English to $1800. This was discussed at a previous meeting, at which time Regent Houghton opposed the raise on the ground that the professor had uttered unpatriotic sentiments in a lecture at Berkeley. Budd read letters of professors who had attended the lecture, in which they declared Professor Syle had been misquoted. He then defended the latter and spoke in glowing terms of his ability and worth.

Regent Black indorsed the lecture as one of the most patriotic he had ever heard, saying it was along the line of "Kipling's great poem, 'Lest We Forget.'" Judge Foote eloquently defended Berkeley's representative, saying that one brought up under the shades of Berkeley could not be disloyal.

After the wave had passed the members agreed to advance Professor Syle's salary if Professor W. D. Armes of the same department received the same treatment. A compromise was easily effected and both professors will receive $1800 per annum.

The following attaches of the university will receive additional compensation for their services: E. W. Davis, Rebecca Meyerstein, May L. Cheney, R. H. Jones, J. D. Layman, C. K. Jones, J. Gillick, F. T. Bioletti, E. Kellner, A. O. Leuschner, W. B. Rising, E. O'Neill, H. I. Randall, L. D. Syle, W. D. Armes, G. T. Winterburn, J. H. Senger, J. T. Allen, H. M. Hopkins, Bernard Moses, K. C. Babcock, L. J. Richardson, W. H. Wright, M. W. Haskell, L. E. Dickson, C. L. Cory, Ira Currier, W. H. Lozier, T. P. Bailey, F. P. Dressler, G. M. Stratton, E. B. McGilvray, W. J. Raymond, M. L. Margolis, W. E. Ritter, and H. B. Torrey.

Pihole Patrol.

Since the destruction of the Santa Cruz powder works, which was attributed to Spanish agents or sympathizers, the powder works at Grant and near Pihole in Contra Costa county are kept guarded to prevent any possibility of a like explosion.

Miss Olive Snider of 2316 Fulton street, who will make her debut in "Moths" at the California Theater on Monday evening next, is very well known in this city. Miss Snider is a young lady of many personal charms and the comment was made during her recent appearance at the Reliance Club benefit in Augustine Daly's "Love in Harness," that she resembled Miss Maxine Elliott in face, figure and presence. She was considered one of the handsomest women on the amateur stage on this coast, and will undoubtedly attract attention on the professional stage.

For some months Miss Snider has been quietly pursuing her studies with a view to a professional theatrical career. Miss Snider took part in private theatricals in San Francisco, and has also done some dramatic readings.

She will take the role of Tinseltia Leah in "Moths" and appear under the stage name of Charlotte Beckwith.

Professor E. B. McGilvray of the State University will deliver the commencement address at the Paso Robles High School June 10. His subject will be "The International Relations of the United States."

Mrs. C. G. Simonds, who has been seriously ill for a number of months past, is much better. Mrs. Simonds was threatened with serious trouble with her eyes, but under skillful treatment she is now able to be out again and her eyes are pronounced beyond danger.

A WORD ABOUT CANDIDATES.

It is now a well established custom in political nominating conventions to scatter nominations over the territory for which the convention is acting. This has become a sort of unwritten law, and in the convention of 1894 it was for the first time extended to this locality and Mr. Spear given the nomination for the office of Recorder, and for which he is now seeking a second nomination at the hands of the Republican county convention. There is another custom which also has become a sort of unwritten law, and that is that when a person does well in a first term to give him a second term. Of course no one has primarily a claim upon, or a right to demand a nomination for any office. It originally rests with the people to select from among themselves those they wish to favor with office. But faithful, obliging, popular service on the part of an incumbent brings about this custom of giving him a second term. It is simply the application of "well done, good and faithful servant," and if it is applied in Mr. Spear's case he will certainly get his home delegation to the County Convention and the convention will nominate him, and this being done the people will certainly elect him, for in the fullest sense he comes up to the requirements as an official entitling a person to a second term, which, summed up, are correctness, promptness and obligingness. After these personal reasons it may be added that Mr. Spear's Republicanism is of the true blue sort. He takes much pride in saying that during all his voting life at every election, whether National, State or County, he has, with head, hand and heart, supported the Republican ticket. Another good reason for putting "Charlie" Spear's name on the ticket is that it would be a strong one and help much to roll up the banner county majority and keep the flag here.

Another resident of Berkeley, Mr. Waterman, is a candidate for County School Superintendent, but as we understand it his candidacy and Mr. Spear's do not conflict.

GOOD ROADS BUILDING

Following is the fifth practical lesson in road building which has been issued by the press bureau of the California Good Roads League:

"Between my residence and the railroad station was a sand road three miles long which, in winter, was passably good, but in summer the sand cut so badly that it was almost impassable. How to raise and cover the sand and make a road that could be maintained cheaply was the problem.

"Of these three miles of sand, two of them were level. There was also one sand-hill one-quarter of a mile long, which had a nine-per cent grade, and another hill, called the 'Summit,' three hundred feet in length, which was composed of cement gravel upon which the horses could get a good footing, with a fourteen-per cent grade. This gravel differs from the wash gravel. Under the heavy traffic it cements into a solid mass, which is not the case with wash gravel. Two miles and a quarter from the 'Summit' was the worst part of the road, one-quarter of a mile long. The road, at that point, had a turn like a crescent, and here it was determined to commence work, commencing the 'Spring' by grading up the sand three feet high and twenty feet broad on top. Then from the bank sides of the road sufficient dirt was hauled to cover the sand.

"The entire twenty feet in breadth was covered with cornstalks laid crosswise on the road eight inches thick; then a covering of straw one foot deep. To keep the road open to travel it was necessary to have an extra man and four extra horses with which to hitch on to pull passing vehicles over the work. After the cornstalks and straw were laid, it was quite easy for any team to pull its own load over the new piece of road. To protect the inside of the crescent, brush was cut and laid against the side of the raised road and the sand shoveled from the side ditches and banked up against the brush, so as to protect the road from washing the coming winter.

"In three weeks the straw and cornstalks were ground to powder and the road was packed as hard as a dirt road could be packed. In the summer the principal teaming was hauling straw to the paper mills. The wagons used were the common farm wagon, the front tires two inches, the rear tires two and a half or two and three-quarter inches, furnished with a rack built to clear the hind wheels, in order to load the straw two bales wide and three bales high. The covered bridges on the road prevented any high loading. The load being top heavy caused it to sway from side to side and thus cause the wheel with its narrow tire to cut and grind the road. During the entire summer, with all the teaming (from two to three hundred teams per day) not a rut was cut in this road, thereby proving that sand would pack and make a solid foundation."

PROFESSOR SYLE'S PATRIOTISM.

A curious discussion took place in the Board of Regents yesterday, when objection was made to raising Professor Syle's salary on the ground that an address he recently made was unpatriotic, in that it contained unpleasant comparisons of the faults of the United States and those which led to Rome's downfall. It appears that there are Regents who think that their control of the salary roll of the University gives them control over the opinions and utterances of the faculty. Professor Syle's lecture was certainly pessimistic, but if to point out dangerous faults in one's country is unpatriotic he is in very good company in his lack of patriotism.

A DESERVED RECOGNITION.

The re-election of J. W. Richard to the presidency of the Board of Town Trustees is a deserved recognition of that gentleman's services to the municipality. Mr. Richards has presided over the Board for several terms and has made a splendid record for consistency, conscientiousness and ability.

ANOTHER BERKELEY VICTORY.

According to the report of the census marshals Berkeley has achieved a victory over Alameda in regard to the school population during the past year. We gained five children and would have gained eighty-four were it not for the loss in the Lorin district caused by the annexation to Oakland. Alameda lost seven children.

A FORM OF PATRIOTISM.

Just now when the country is seething with patriotism, it should not be forgotten that one way to manifest this feeling is to purchase of home merchants. A great deal of money is carried daily out of this city which should be spent here. Those people who are in business here are certainly entitled to the preference.

SAID TO BE FUNNY.

A correspondent of the Westminster Gazette calls attention to the curious juxtaposition of two finger posts attached to a public house near Bridgend. One reads: "To the asylum," and the other "To the cemetery."

THE RED CROSS.

The Red Cross committee on materials is working every day in the Congregational church to prepare bandages to be sent out on the ship of Peking which is to sail Saturday. There are a large number of ladies and some children who have volunteered to aid in this worthy cause. The bandages are made and rolled in small rolls, then sent to the University chemistry department, where they are sterilized.

The society expects to provide 75 soldiers with all the necessary bandages. Mr. Penney, of Taft & Penney, has provided all the material used in this department. Mrs. Florence Chick is chairman of the materials committee.

Mrs. Van Dyke sent a large box of books and magazines for the soldiers on the trip down.

"Berkeley."

The collection of views of the town and University just issued from the World office under the direction of A. J. Scotchley, is one that should be in the possession of every resident and prospective owner.

There is no better method of conveying a clear impression of the physical features of a place than this one of a carefully selected arrangement of photographic reproductions. Visitors have daily inquired for some publication that could show what Berkeley was. This work supplies just this demand, besides giving an artistic and valuable souvenir for local preservation.

The selection of subjects is general, displaying in a striking manner the growth of the community. The view from the hills looking west in 1873 is contrasted with a similar view in 1898, and the change is remarkable. Transformation scenes around Berkeley station in 1888 and 1898 are likewise presented.

This album is offered at so low a price as to be within the reach of every one. The book contains forty pages of pictures, most of them full page, and these are accompanied by just enough descriptive matter to present clearly and concisely the material development of the community.

To accommodate those who may desire to send away to friends or correspondents several copies, an abridged edition can be delivered at a proportionately lower rate.

The price of the book at this office is 50 cents, which is far below the rate of similar publications in other cities. Do not delay.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

REGISTRATION.

OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK OF ALAMEDA COUNTY, CAL.
Notice is hereby given that all citizens whose names are not now on the Great Register of Alameda county are requested to register in order to be entitled to vote at the next general election in November 1898.

That owing to failure of Legislature to provide assistance for Clerk, it is necessary to begin registration at an early date in order to satisfactorily attend to registration.

That voters who have since the date of the last general election taken up their residence in Alameda county, and those who since that date have removed from precincts in which their names appear on Great Register, must make affidavit in order to have their names placed on Register of precinct in which they now reside.

That it is not necessary for voters who registered at the general election of 1896 and whose names appear on the Great Register of 1896 to again make affidavit for registration unless since the date of last registration they have changed their place of residence.

The registration will continue to and including August 10th, 1898, after which it will cease.

Attention is called to the provisions of Section 1333, which provides that those who should have been a resident of the State one year next preceding the election, and of the county in which they claim their vote ninety days, and in the election precinct in which they claim their vote thirty days, before any Deputy County Clerk in the election towns, and precincts of the county, not before any Deputy County Clerk, without charge.

And that it is also to be sworn to before any Deputy County Clerk, after the filing of affidavits, other than for the purpose of changing the election precinct entered on Great Register, postal cards will be sent giving date of entry. If postal is not received, voters should ascertain the reason why.

The office of the County Clerk in the Hall of Records, will be, until further notice, open for registration from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. of each day.

Dated April 4, 1898.

TO STOP SMOKING ON STREET CARS.

The following petition with the signatures of 750 residents, the larger part being voters, was yesterday presented by the Alameda County Women's Christian Temperance Union to the street railway companies.

"To the officers and managers of the electric and cable railroad lines in Oakland and Alameda county:

"Gentlemen—We, the undersigned men and women, resident in the city of Oakland and within the limits of Alameda county, respectfully but earnestly request you to make such rules and regulations as will forbid and effectually prevent the use of tobacco in any way or manner on board your cars when in use for the benefit of the general public, and this petition we respectfully urge for the following reasons:

"First—From the standpoint of justice to those who dislike tobacco, and who also have rights that tobacco users are bound to respect.

"Second—From the standpoint of health, which is always impaired by inhaling air made both foul and poisonous by tobacco smokers and chewers, thus rendering it unfit for a life producing element.

"Third—From the standpoint of the Golden Rule, with the theory of which the whole Christianized world is familiar."

HEALTH CATECHISM.

To Be Committed to Memory by

All Dyspeptics, Invalids, Consumptives.

What is the first cause of nine-tenths of all disease?

Imperfect digestion of food.

Why does imperfect digestion cause disease of other organs?

Because blood, muscles, bone and flesh are derived from the food we eat and digest. If digestion is perfect the blood is pure, nerves and muscles strong, flesh firm. If the digestion is poor, the blood is supplied from half-digested, fermenting food, irritating every nerve and organ.

The result is, sooner or later, organic disease, because every organ being poorly nourished the weakest gives way first, and we have liver trouble, kidney complaints, heart disease or consumption.

Is not dieting the usual and best treatment to cure indigestion?

No, because the dyspeptic has been starved long enough; what is needed is abundant nourishment, not the lack of it. The stomach and blood demand nutriment, not bran crackers.

What is the best method of cure?

Plenty of wholesome food well digested.

But how can a weak stomach digest plenty of wholesome food?

By taking with the food after each meal certain harmless remedies which are known to digest food and thus nourish the blood and rest the weak stomach.

What are these harmless remedies?

The most valuable are vegetable elements, pure pepsin, Golden Seal and fruit salts. All of these are now combined in the form of pleasant-tasting tablets sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Are these tablets superior to the various liquid preparations so called dyspepsia cures?

Most decidedly, because all liquid medicines become stale with age and lose whatever good qualities they may have had originally, while the tablet retains its properties indefinitely. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets can be carried in the pocket, always at hand ready for use when traveling or at daily occupation.

They cost but 50 cents, and should be kept in every family. They keep the digestion perfect and save doctor's bills by warding off disease.

Are Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets adapted to all forms of dyspepsia?

Yes, because in all cases the trouble results from indigestion, fermenting food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cause the food to be digested before it has time to ferment.

If you wish to know more about them ask your druggist for a package and try them.
